

Topic 6: Phenomenological approach towards a predictive framework for gene expression & growth

Top-down approach:

- discover constraints and exploit them to build predictive framework
- understand the origins of the constraints (physical, biological, ...)
- · elucidate how cells measure global effects and deal with them
- combine with specific regulation to do predictive biology

